The Austrian minister to Serbia has warned Prince Alexander of Bulgaria that if war be resumed on a disagreement on the question of indemnity, Austrian troops will enter Serbia. The Austrian General Albon, has gone to Nissa, and will assume command of the Servians, if hostilities reopen.

An incessant, sharp rifle fire is going on from the palace and its surroundings, and occasionally the thunder of the big guns is heard. The engagement has not yet become general. The streets are deserted except by a few persons, who are curious to witness the proceedings. At 9:50 o'clock this morning, fire was begun from Lima, from the Mercedes tower. All railroad trains and other traffic are stopped.

Another Billiard Contest.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Articles of agreement for another billiard tournament, to begin at Central Music hall on Dec. 21, were signed yesterday by Mr. M. Bensinger, for the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company, and by Mr. George Slosson, for himself, Vignaux, and Schaefer. By the terms of the agreement the three last are to play, each with the other, one game of 600 points at the balk line game, for a purse of $1,000 and a gold medal, each game of the championship, offered by Mr. Bensinger, and a 50, 30, and 20 per cent. division of the gate receipts. Should a tie result, as in the last tournament, the playing of similar games shall continue in Chicago until one of the contestants has won two games.

The hall was engaged for three extra nights to cover the possible contingency. Mr. Bensinger deposited $1,000 with Mr. Millard Adams, who will act as treasurer of the tournament. The gold championship medal will be subject to a challenge every six months. When it is held by any one for two years in succession it then becomes the property of the holder, and the billiard company will pay the holder an extra $1,100.

PITTSBURG, December 1.—The striking miners on the Monongahela have run up the white flag and no further trouble is anticipated. Special telegrams received this morning from a dozen or more points, along the river, indicate that the miners do not intend to make another break as they did last week. The better class of miners censure severely the action of the hot heads who made the attack on the non-union men, but they assert that they will still stand out for the half-cent-per-bushel advance. The Alpine Run three mines are in operation with about 160 men at work. The other mines are shut down.

FICKLE FORTUNE TELLERS.

They Attempt to Beat Captain Dideon for $100 Board Bill—The People Under Arrest.

Some two months ago Prof. George W. Briggs and his interesting wife registered at the Tremont house, managed by Captain Dideon. The professor said he was a fortune teller and made a confident of the landlord, whom he agreed to pay $12 a week. The mind reader said he had $1,800 in the hands of his wife's brother at Pittsburg and expected it on in a few weeks. He occasionally paid a little money to add flavor to his stay and the Madame Briggs smiled on the boarders who affected much social solidarity with the lady. This business ran on until a week ago, when Captain Dideon insisted on getting "dust." This is a term used on the Pacific coast to mean gold and the fortune teller promised it in two days. In the meantime the professor and his madam fled the city and put up at Portland. Here Captain Dideon followed them and Deputy Prosecutor Bittinger will charge the people with practicing fraud and obtaining valuables under false pretenses. Professor and Madame Briggs will return here for trial and ample provision will be made for their reception at the jail.

TEACHERS IN COUNCIL.

An Important Meeting to Occur at Elkhart Saturday.

The teachers and superintendents of schools in the cities and towns of Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan will hold a meeting at Elkhart, Indiana, December 5, 1885. The object of this meeting is for the discussion, in an ingraduated school work and management. One meeting of this kind was held at Elkhart last spring, which was well attended. At that meeting it was decided to hold another in the fall, and in pursuance of such action the committee has arranged accordingly. The committee has taken pains to consult the wishes of superintendents as to topics of discussion and the place of holding the meeting, and upon comparing notes and suggestions, it was thought best to meet at Elkhart, and a list of topics of interest to all engaged in school work was prepared for discussion at that time.

ALL IN ATOMS.

A Tow Boat Shattered and Sea-Men Drowned.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 2.—The tow boat Iron City was blown to pieces this morning about 2 o'clock, while stuck on a bar at the head of Herr's island in the Allegheny river. The crew, numbering six men, were blown into the river. Engineer George Ashton was instantly killed. Fred Jackson was fatally injured and others were severely hurt. The boat was burned to the water's edge and is a total loss. Shortly after 2 o'clock a final effort was made to get her off the bar. The engines were fired to their fullest capacity, but the boilers could not stand the pressure and collapsed. The wounded are: Robert Jackson, fireman, badly bruised and scalded; Joe Richardson, badly injured; Ex-Councilman Smith Walker, severely hurt; Billy Wently, leg broken. James Omsler, the owner, is said to be severely injured. The Iron City was built here eleven years ago, and has continually been engaged in harbor towing. The original cost was about $16,000.

THE CAUSE.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 2.—The accident to the tow boat Iron City, which was wrecked this morning, was caused by natural gas. The boat struck the gas main and ruptured it. The gas caught fire from the furnace and an explosion ensued.

VICIOUS WOMEN.

Further Riots in the Polish Church.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 2.—At St. Albert's Polish Catholic church to-day both masses were drowned in the yells and screams of the women who packed the church and pelted the priests with chunks of dry mud, stones, etc. One of the new priests was attacked on the steps of the altar and his priestly robes torn from his back by the infuriated women. The priests then feared for their lives and, surrounded by thirty policemen, ran at full speed across the street to the priests' house, amid showers of stones and brickbats. Several of the rioters were arrested by the police. The streets became packed with a howling mob. At last Father Kolanski, the deposed priest, appeared at the scene and was instantly surrounded by women and children who kissed his hands and vowed they would never have any priest but him. Father Kolanski persuaded them to clear the street and all is now quiet. More trouble is sure to follow unless the bishop restores Kolanski to his charge.

DETROIT, Mich., December 1.—For some time past there has been trouble at St. Albert's Polish Catholic church in this city. Serious charges have been made against the priest, Father Kolanski. Last Sunday Bishop Borgess sent for the books of the church, which were refused, Father Kolanski endeavoring to get his congregation to sign a paper expressing confidence in him. This move precipitated the trouble, and it was necessary to call the police to keep the peace. This morning the trouble culminated in a pitched battle between a squad of police and several hundred women of the congregation. Yesterday Father Kolanski turned over the books of the church, having been deposed by the bishop. Father Jawowski and Dombrowski were put in temporary charge. Police Captain Mach this morning took a dozen police to the church to prevent disturbance. Father Jawowski attempted to hold early mass, but the congregation ejected him from the church, locking the door after him. On their arrival the police were assaulted and one arrested. The crowd was ordered to disperse but refused to move unless the police preceded. The police thereupon charged on the throng. The women fought desperately using umbrellas and fists vigorously. Sobs and shouts were mingled, and while some fought, others knelt on the steps and prayed. After a hard fight of twenty minutes, the police were victorious.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

OWENSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 2.—There was another accident at the Slate creek iron ore mine, near Olympia, yesterday, by which eight men were blown up by a blast. All were badly injured and five perhaps fatally. John and Lafa Statin, John Mountjoy and a young man named Beffet were fatally injured.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

A REVOLT

Is Predicted Down in Mexico.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

MEXICO, Dec. 2.—The state of Nuevo Leon is now without a governor. Further fighting is expected almost hourly. The inactivity of General Reyes leads to the common belief that the federal government will immediately proclaim martial law in Nuevo Leon. All the indications unmistakably point to a revolution of large proportions.

Fire Record.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A fire, caused by the accidental upsetting of a pot of boiling varnish, broke out early this morning in David Black's tinware factory, 26 and 28 Elizabeth street. Samuel Madodsky tried to put out the flames and was badly burned. Mr. Black occupied all the building, except the first story. Loss, $30,000 on stock and $20,000 on building, covered by insurance.

Miners Fighting.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

ST. LOUIS, December 1.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Macon, Missouri, says there was a firing of pistols and guns between the black and white miners, at Beaver coal mines, all last night, but without serious injury to any body. So far as can be learned, four men have been killed since Saturday, three negroes and one white man, and several have been wounded. There is no abatement of feeling, and there is a constant liability of blood shed. The county authorities have done nothing toward suppressing the riotous proceedings. The militia have not yet arrived, and women and children are being sent away from Beaver. The miners remain inside the stockade at the mine, and fire at all who come within range of their guns. Every man and boy at the mine, who is able to handle a gun, is said to be armed.

GREENSBURG, Indiana, December 2.—The Baltimore & Ohio special train, with President Cleveland's cabinet, passed through here en route for Washington, at 9 o'clock, having left Indianapolis at quarter past 7 o'clock. Senators Voorhees and Vest and several members of the house of representatives, were in a private car, on the first section.

"When we two parted," after lingering late at the garden gate, I felt that I had taken cold," said Thomas Takeindeed, "and next morning I was hoarse indeed. But a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup fixed me up, and there's enough left for the next time."

JEFFERSONIANS ABROAD.

Fort Wayne Nicely Represented at the Funeral of Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks.

It is probable that 400 citizens of Fort Wayne were at Indianapolis yesterday to participate in and witness the funeral of the late Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks. The people went via the Richmond, Wabash and Maucie roads. The Jeffersonian club and their friends went over the Maucie and Bee line yesterday morning 250 strong and were landed at Indianapolis at 10:30. The Jeffersonians headed by the city band marched to the residence of Mr. Hendricks until the procession moved and found them at the head of the Indiana divisions. There were 160 Jeffersonians in line, marching four abreast, and by the way, Fort Wayne was the only Indiana city that turned out such a delegation. The Duckworth club, of Cincinnati, was there in great force and that organization alone surpassed the Jeffersonians in number. The Fort Wayne men were handsome and genteel looking, and in the lobbies and streets of the city, Fort Wayne was lauded to the skies for the part her people played in the mournful procession. The city band was not surpassed and its serenades at the Grand hotel, where the Fort Wayne people stopped, were highly appreciated. Captain Fickel and Lieut. Ryan commanded the Jeffersonians, after whose general welfare Hon. Montgomery Hamilton carefully looked. The trip home last night was very tiresome, both the Bee Line and Maucie roads declining to run a through train for the Fort Wayne party. It was 3 o'clock when the train stopped here, after being on the road since 7:30.

To show that all this gossip about the Fort Wayne party is not manufactured to suit Fort Wayne, this item from the Indianapolis Journal tells it: "While one of the best looking bodies in the line was the Jeffersonian club, of Fort Wayne, with 160 members, all wearing black plug hats."

Killed on the Wabash.

Freight Conductor Nelson W. Parker, of the Wabash, was killed at Morrisonville Saturday. He was in charge of a local freight and fell from the top of a box car and was instantly killed. He was a married man, but had no children. He was about thirty-five years of age. He was well liked and had recently been made extra passenger conductor. His body was interred in the cemetery at Decatur.

At Lafayette, Sunday evening, a little boy attempted to board a Wabash train and was killed.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.

Hypocrits is the compliment vice pays to virtue. Imitation is the complaint failure pays to success. The name for the character of Benson's Cough Plasters is imitated by unscrupulous parties, who make and try to sell plasters variously called "Cough Plaster," "Cough Plaster," "Cough Plaster," with the manifest intent to deceive. So cunningly and boldly is this done that careless people are doubtless sometimes deceived into buying such articles in place of the genuine. Happily the number who follow this vicious course decreases every year through the refusal of reputable dealers to handle the imitation goods, meaning to be cautious. In the middle of the genuine is cut or perforated the word "Cough," and on the face cloth is the "Three Stars" trademark. Ask for Benson's—then examine. One Benson's is worth a dozen of any other kind. 30-4w

All the attempts to imitate the Richmond Straight Cut Cigarettes have failed. The particular kind of tobacco from which they are made is exclusively controlled by Allen & Ginter.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Beware of cheap imitations.

GUARDING A "ROLLER COASTER."

La Fayette's new "roller coaster" at Linwood Park has a vigilant night watchman in ex-Policeman John McGrath, who is careful to see that no daring spirits take surreptitious rides upon the coaster during the hours of darkness, and who is himself a most fearless and gallant rider. Mr. McGrath is a hearty looking man, but yet has had occasion to lament the fact that a policeman's lot is not a happy one. The truth is Mr. McGrath has suffered from that distressing complaint—rheumatism, but he is no longer afflicted with it. Athlophors cured him and he is now as well able to chase down any evil-doer and land him behind bolts and bars as he ever was. Being asked as to his rheumatism and cure Mr. McGrath gave this account:

"I was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism in the hip. I suffered much pain and was obliged to quit work entirely. I was helpless so far as walking was concerned and was confined to my bed for six weeks. In my efforts to get relief I used many kinds of medicines and liniments, but they failed to make any change for the better. After trying so many kinds of medicines I was very loath to experiment with any new remedy, but seeing Athlophors recommended so highly I purchased a bottle. After using the one bottle I was entirely well and able to go to work. Have I any return of the pains since? None whatever. I have not lost a day's work since."

Mr. W. B. King, the dealer in sewing machines at the corner of Fifth and Columbia streets, has had an equally satisfactory experience with Athlophors in curing rheumatism.

"It was magical in its effects upon me," he says. "I was first taken with pain in the soles of my feet and in a few hours was not able to walk at all. The rapidity with which the disease came over my whole system was wonderful. Every bone, muscle and joint in my body gave me the most intense pain. My arms were both drawn up, and I could not walk, or sleep. I suffered in this way for many weeks. Finally, by the persuasion of a friend who knew of Athlophors, I was induced to try it. I had taken but a few doses when I had very decided relief. I continued taking the medicine until I had used six bottles, and I have not had a pain of rheumatism since."

Still another resident of La Fayette, Ind., who has used the wonderful remedy with the happiest results is Mrs. A. E. Sherman, of No. 159 Main street, who suffered so severely with sciatic rheumatism that at times she could not walk.

"I tried every kind of liniment, besides many medicines," says Mrs. Sherman, "but could get no relief. I finally said, 'Well, I am going to try this Athlophors; it is spoken of very highly.' After using about three-quarters of a bottle I began to experience relief. I used about three bottles and have not had any pain since. My mother, Mrs. Lain, who lives with me, is now seventy-seven years old, and for about five years was badly crippled with rheumatism. She was much worse than I; in fact, at one time we thought she would never get well, and more as an experiment than anything else I gave her a quarter of a bottle of Athlophors. She got some relief, even with that small amount, and continued using it to the extent of four bottles. She does not have any pain now, but still has some stiffness in her joints."

If you cannot get Athlophors from your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed. ATHLOPHORS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York.

So WHOLESALE was the dead-beating at Boston this year that the American Board of Foreign Missions will no longer send delegates and their families into private families to be guests during convention week. This year there were 4,000 visitors that enjoyed free board. Some pastors brought large numbers of relatives and friends; six thrifty brides couples spent a week of their honeymoon "D. H.," where three or four "delegates" were invited six or eight came, and so on.

JUDGE FITCH, a Republican of New York, who is opposed to the idea of civil-service reform, believing that it will have the effect to create a class of life officeholders, offers to bet $1,000 even that President Cleveland can not pass an examination for a 1,200 clerkship. Here is an excellent chance, says the Chicago Herald, for some ardent admirer of reform and of the President to win a little money. If the examination could be held in public and an admission fee charged, enough might be realized to build the Grant monument.

A LIVING panorama of Japan has been opened in San Francisco, in which all the characteristic arts and manufactures of that country are seen in progress. Satsuma and Cloisonne ware are made before your eyes; handkerchiefs are woven and embroidered; lacquer-ware and bronzes grow into form while the visitor is looking on; there is a Japanese tea-house, with Japanese attendants, while Japanese babies crawl about the floor; lastly, there is a company of Japanese conjurers and gymnasts who will astonish you by their performances.

COL. HIGGINSON writes to a Boston newspaper that the "shock" caused in Boston by Matthew Arnold's lecture on Emerson related, in the opinion of many others, not so much to the subject of the lecture as the author. He recalls an anecdote of Mrs. Elizabeth Montague, who, while in Paris, was invited to hear Voltaire read an essay on Shakespeare, in which he attempted to show that the great poet was not a great poet. When Voltaire had finished reading the hope was expressed by some one present that the essay had not caused her pain. "Why should it pain me?" she said, calmly, "I have not the honor to be one of the friends of M. de Voltaire."

SERGEANT BULMER, the winner of the Queen's prize, at Wimbledon, in shooting at Spalding, in the class-firing of his regiment, made a remarkable score. He fired ten shots each at 700 and 800 yards, his total being seventy-four points out of a possible eighty. His first eight shots at 800 yards were bull's eyes, and the last two inners, or thirty eight points out of a possible forty.

A MEMBER of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals having urged the society to petition the Queen on behalf of the deer, the Secretary in his reply makes the humiliating admission that "A petition to the Queen would be of no service at all, for the reason that she keeps a large pack of hounds for the very purpose of hunting these animals; besides, she would not dare, I think, to interfere with the sporting people, which would make her very unpopular with the upper classes."

A DOZEN years ago an Antwerp tailor bought, for a franc, a dirty little picture which had belonged to an old doctor then recently deceased. The tailor hung the picture upon the wall, but did not think it worth the cost of cleansing, and nobody found it very attractive. A little while ago, however, an artist happened to see it, and induced the owner to lend it to him to clean. No sooner was the first coat removed than there was seen in one of the corners the signature, "Pietro Paulo Rubens, 1614." The picture represented Christ blessing the world, and is said to be in excellent preservation. The tailor has already received several good offers for his picture, but he is waiting until a rich American comes along.

A CIVIC association has been formed at San Francisco to assist the unemployed. The scheme has some curious features. In order to induce subscriptions it has been determined that the religious denomination making the largest shall hold the opening services at the dedication of the Bureau, every denomination subscribing to have its percentage of days of worship according to the amount of its subscriptions, and political parties will have divided among them evenings set apart for political discussions. A bust of the largest subscriber will be placed in the position of honor in the hall, at the foot of which will be placed a bust of the most successful canvasser of subscriptions. This scheme is reported to be making rapid progress among the business men. The main object is to head off the numerous irresponsible employment agencies.

FOR at least forty years the chrysanthemum plant, a native of China and Japan, has flourished by the Thames without either smoke, or fog, or sulphurous acid having had any appreciable influence on its many-lined petals. Since 1850 there have been exhibitions of this plant in the Temple Gardens, the Middle Temple striving in friendly rivalry with the Inner Temple for the distinction of possessing the largest and finest collection of this specialty of their grounds. Every year the number, if not the splendor, of the exhibits has increased. Less than thirty years ago the gardeners rejoiced in having 500 varieties to display. To-day, if they have not four times as many, it is simply because the growers prefer to concentrate their skill on a comparatively small number of specimens, since fully 2,000 are entered in the horticulturists' catalogues.

THERE is a Russian student at a French academy. His mother naturally had scruples about his lodging anywhere else than under the supervision of his tutors. He wrote expostulating, and desecrated on the unhealthiness of his quarters to an alarming extent. The answer came: "At the academy you are safe, my son, and at the academy you must remain." He grew pathetic, but to no purpose. At last he took counsel of his friends. There is a pest which creepeth in darkness, and a great many specimens were collected, in-losed in a small cardboard box, and directed to the obdurate parent with these words: "Mother, in pity let me leave this place. Never a wink can I get at night. Here are a few. I could send you a bushel. These, my tormentors, will explain more than words. I am grieved to have had recourse to such strong evidence. Your discomfited son." The answer was: "My son, go wheresoever thou wilt, only leave the academy."

THE FIRST KEEN TWINGE. As the season advances, the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism; we doubt if there is, or can be, such a remedy. But the thousands benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla, warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

DR. S. W. COHEN, of Waco, Texas, says: "I have used your Emulsion in infantile wasting with good results. It not only restores wasted tissue, but gives strength, and I heartily recommend it for diseases attended by atrophy."

OGLETHORPE (Ga.) Castanet: Some of the railways down this way are still a little shaky. The old Jerkwater Line is especially loose in the joints. A commercial traveler who came in yesterday relates a little experience while bounding over that road. "We were whooping along," he said, "at the rate of about seven miles an hour, and the old train was weaving terribly. I expected every minute to see my bones protruding through my skin. Passengers were rolling from one end of the car to the other. I held on like grim death to the arms of my seat. Presently we settled down to quiet running—at least I could keep my hat on and my teeth didn't chatter. The conductor was in hailing distance. I looked up with a ghastly smile, wishing to appear cheerful, and said: 'We are going a little smoother, I see.' 'Yes,' said the conductor, 'we're off the track now.'"

"Doctor," said a despairing patient to his physician, "I am in a dreadful condition! I can neither lay nor set. What shall I do?" "I think you had better roost," was the reply. Now, if we consider that this poor fellow was all contorted with rheumatism, the doctor would have done much better by prescribing a bottle of Salvation Oil, which would have relieved his patient at once. Price 25 cents a bottle.

A Baragan in Corner Lots is what most men desire, but to keep from filling a grave in a cemetery lot ere half your days are numbered, always keep a supply of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" by you. When the first symptoms of consumption appear lose no time in putting yourself under the treatment of this invaluable medicine. It cures when nothing else will. Possessing, as it does, ten times the virtue of the best cod liver oil, it is not only the cheapest but the pleasantest to take. It purifies and enriches the blood, strengthens the system, cures blotches, pimples, eruptions and other humors. By druggists.

Those who suffer from loss of appetite, Nausea and headache, will find immediate relief and ultimate cure, by using the great tonic and invigorator, Nichols' Bark and Iron.

In the Dear Old Days, but we are a bit different in creed and politics, but we are a bit the same on the desirableness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and want a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. It is the only standard 50c article for the hair.

Swift's Specific!

Is nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half breed from the Creek Indians who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The above cut represents the method of manufacture twenty years ago, by Mr. C. T. Swift, one of the present proprietors. The demand has been gradually increasing until a $100,000 laboratory is now necessary to supply the trade. A foreign demand has been created, and enlarged facilities will be necessary to meet it. THE YALLER DOG.
His Soaring Ambition, and the Dismal
Fate It Brought Upon Him.
This yaller dog I have in mind
Was born in '81,
And in the State of Illinoy
He first beheld the sun.
The way that pup took on and grew
And got to be a dog
Would warm the heart of any man,
Unless he was a hog.
He cut his teeth with a cur;
His tail soon got a whirl.
And he had sand enough to give Most any dog a whirl.

The owner of this yaller dog
Looked on with pride and glee,
And never seemed to have a fear
Of future miserie.
That dog he bit a hundred tramps,
And at a hundred lights,
And he was always ready for
The cats which prowled o' nights.

Indeed, he got his nose so high,
And felt so awful
sick,
That he just wanted for to see Something he couldn't lick.
It was a balmy, juley
day,
And not a leaf
there blowed.
When something heaved in sight adown
The dust-bekivered road.

One something was a showman, and
The 'tother was a bear;
The first was taking on 'tother one Unto the county fair.

This yaller dog he saw that bear
When half a mile away.
And he did lick his bloody chops,
And to himself did say:

"Well, here is luck and no mistake,
And durn my yaller eyes,
If I don't wack that object up,
Then this 'ere dog he lies!

"I'll make of it a total wreck—
I'll wallop it so bad
That, even if its life
is saved,
'Twon't pay to live, hedad!"

The master of this yaller dog
Sot there and took it in;
And as he saw the state of things
He grinned an awful grin.

When that 'ere man and that 'ere bear
Were nigh unto the gate,
The owner of the yaller dog
He could no longer wait.

"Stuboy!" he cried, in loudest voice,
"Go in, my fighting Jim!
This is the chance for which we've ached—
Go fill him to the brim!"

And fighting Jim he made a rush,
And tackled to that
bear.
And growls of twenty different sorts Arose to split the air.

But never more will
yaller dog
A greater error make;
There'll never be a simpler job
A bear can undertake.

In sixteen seconds by the watch
That yaller dog was dead.
And that 'ere bear was proudly off,
A scratching of his head!

And thus you see and realize,
No matter where you be,
That it don't allus pay a chap
To air his vanities.

And sometimes it is for the best
To go a little slow.
And let some other critter have
A sort o' farish show.

GEORGE'S TRIAL.
A Reform in Which All Young Men
Should Be Interested.

"George!" Her voice was low and sound-very pathetic as she spoke. "George,
I love you dearly—madly, but you must reform."

"Reform, my darling," he returned, as an expression of surprise shot athwart his face as a hungry pug shoots across a barnyard at dinner time. "Reform, pet! And have I not reformed? I have stopped smoking and drinking, and what more can you ask?"

"George," she persisted, sweetly, while the love-light lit up her eyes like a calcium light at a melodrama. "The collar that you wear is out of style. It stands up and the front corners turn over. George, my love; that collar must go. Last night Charlie was down here, and he wore a different kind of collar; and oh, George, my own, if you only knew how much less it pricked my cheek, you would—"

But George was no longer there. He had rushed madly out into the pale moonlight, and was breathing vows of vengeance on Charlie's head. Such little things will sometimes ruffle a man's temper. —The Rambler.

A Material Difference.
Two Texas gentlemen were talking about traits of character in families.
"It is surprising how members of the same family can be so totally different as is frequently the case."
"To what particular case do you refer?"
"I am thinking of the two sons of Judge Pennybunker."

"As far as I know there is very little difference in their ways and manners. They both seem to be drunk in most of the time."
"Yes, that's true, but there is a great difference between them, nevertheless."
"What is it?"
"One of them can never get enough while the other has always got too much." —Texas Sittings.

The Right Hour.
"Phat time is it?" Inquired an Irishman of an eccentric Scotchman who carried a watch.
"It ha' joostr strack wan," replied the Scot, giving Pat a thump on the head with his cane.

"Well, may goodness be praised that I didn't mate yet an hour sooner," said Pat,
as he rubbed his head. —Chicago Ledger.

A TOO COMMON FOOL.
There was a man in our town
Who wasn't very wise;
For twenty long and weary years
Did he economize.
For twenty years he wore old clothes
And talked with might and main,
And starved and walked and often froze,
And suffered many a pain.
For twenty years he was the joy of life,
And all his self-indulged woes
Were shared by his good wife.
In twenty years his wife and he Had saved enough to spend Their few remaining days in peace
With plenty to attend.
And then this man, like other fools,
To Wall street went;
With what he'd saved in twenty years
And lost it in a day.
—H. C. Dodge, in Detroit Free Press

An Uncorroborated Statement.
"The world is a great deal more wicked than it was when I was a boy."
"Oh, that's all stuff and nonsense. It's growing better every day."
"I'd like to see you prove it."
"I can do it."
"Come on with your evidence."
"Well, some time ago I inadvertently left an umbrella in a hotel hat-rack, and found it there on my return a day or two afterward, and it was a silk one, too."
"Was it raining at the time?"
"Well—er—no, I believe not." —Chicago

He came into the hotel and registered:
"John Smith, D. D."
"Hello," said the clerk, who knew him quite well, "what's the D. D. for?"
"That's all right," he replied.

"No, not exactly, but that looks like it."

Danger from Catarrh

That exceedingly disagreeable and very prevalent disease, catarrh, is caused by scrofulous taint in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla, by its powerful purifying and vitalizing action upon the blood, speedily removes the cause, and thus effects a radical and permanent cure of catarrh. Those who suffer from its varied symptoms—uncomfortable flow from the nose, offensive breath, ringing and bursting noises in the ears, swelling of the soft parts of the throat, nervous prostration, etc.—should take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

The Best Medicine
"I have suffered with catarrh in my head for years, and paid out hundreds of dollars for medicines, but have heretofore received only temporary relief. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and now my catarrh is nearly cured, the weakness of my body is all gone, my appetite is good—in fact, I feel like another person. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I have ever taken." MRS. A. CUNNING-HAM, Providence, R. I.

for catarrh and impure blood than anything else I ever used." A. RALL, Syracuse, N. Y.
"I suffered three years with catarrh, and my general health was poor in consequence.
When I took Hood's Sarsaparilla I found I had the right remedy. The catarrh is yielding, as Hood's Sarsaparilla is cleansing my blood, and the general tone of my system is improving." FRANK WASHBURN, Rochester, N. Y.
